Five Bentley Baseball Players Recognized by Northeast-10

WALTHAM, Mass. -- Five Bentley University baseball players were honored by the Northeast-10 Conference on Wednesday. Freshman pitcher John Yohe (Merrick, N.Y./St. Dominic HS) was named to the All-Rookie team. Yohe had a solid freshman year off the mound, posting a 3-5 overall record and a 3.96 ERA in ten starts. He averaged 7.5 innings per start, second in the conference and had a team-best 2.28 ERA during the second half of the season. Yohe had four times as many strikeouts (37) as walks (9), and is currently tenth in Division II in walks per nine innings (1.08).
